UR PLAN ON WAY TO FINAL
WASHINGTON OK

Cameron's urban renewal plan was scheduled to be forwarded to Washington to the Fort Worth office of Housing and Urban Renewal on April 13, according to W. A. McCullin Sr., chairman of the local UR board.

McCullin said it was his understanding that final approval of the plan from Washington should be forthcoming in a "short time."

The regular Cameron UR board meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Monday at the urban renewal office. Newly appointed member Dr. George Bowman and re-appointed members will be sworn in at the meeting.

Dr. Bowman was appointed to fill a vacancy on the board created when Monroe Fuchs resigned following his election to the City Council.

Clarkson Area Set For Oil Try

Milam County will gain a new wildcat within a few days in the Clarkson area where there has been no drilling activity in about fifteen years.

The new wildcat will be drilled by Hondo Drilling Company of Midland and located on a lease block assembled by Curtis Norman, a Brady, Texas operator. Drillsite will be on a 158.4 acre lease in William Punchard Survey owned by the Skala Brothers - Henry E. Skala, Frank R. Skala, and Jerry F. Skala.

Hondo Drilling Company was required to commence operations on the wildcat by April 1. The test will be drilled to 3,500 feet, and may go deeper. Rumors are that it will be a deep test, possibly even to the Smackover.

If this rumor is right, it will be the first deep Smackover try since Shell Oil Company abandoned its third deep wildcat aimed at that formation near Gause about three years ago.

Norman has been leasing acreage in that northeast section of Milam County for two or three years and has put together a lease block of several thousand acres. It includes tracts in the William Punchard Survey, John Benson, W. L. Hannum, George B. Erath and J. A. Tivey Surveys.

SPRING SUNSHINE feels good when you're a retired railroad man and have time to enjoy it, like H. C. Boedeker did earlier in the week before the rain started. "Sunshine soakers" can enjoy the pastime even more now, with comfortable new benches on the Milam Courthouse lawn.

SIGNS GOING UP - Folk Fete banners are being readied to top highway bill-board signs on approaches to Cameron for the June 12 - 13 event. Committee co-chairmen Jack Tumlinson and Porter Young have contacted bill board owners and will place signs in advance of the Folk Fete.

County School Districts Face Changing Needs

Cameron schools, along with school systems around the state, are feeling pressures to curb spending while being faced with needs for increasing the range of programs for both college bound and vocational students.

The Governor's committee on Public School Education after three years of study recommended further consolidation of common and independent districts particularly rural. Presently 88 counties in Texas are operating under one district systems.

Milam County presently has five independent school districts: Cameron, Rockdale, Thorndale, Gause and Milano; one common school district (Maysfield) and one rural high school district (Buckholts).

The Texas Education Agency has estimated that had the school districts in Milam County been consolidated for the 1968-69 school year, the incentive aid payment to the newly consolidated district would have been $112,560 per year for a ten-year period.

This was computed by subtracting the amount of the Foundation School Fund that would have been received by the combined district ($619,615) from the amount of Foundation Funds received by the separate districts ($732,211).

The consolidated district would have lost fifteen classroom teacher units and the operating cost, four superintendents, and cooperative unit salaries.

However, the TEA said there would have been a corresponding gain of three special service units, one supervisor and/or counselor, and two full-time principals.

ADVANTAGES

Obvious advantages in consolidation are savings in administrative and taxing costs and qualifying by size for a separate vocational program and community services such as adult education.

In two Texas counties the office of County Superintendent has been abolished. In several districts all administrative functions have been placed in one office, with school locations remaining the same.

The TEA said that when re-districting is discussed or being considered, the following disadvantages are often pointed out:

1. The community may fear that it will lose its school and identity - not understanding that the school would probably remain and become an attendance area of the larger administrative unit;

2. Transportation problems might arise and require establishment of new bus routes, and parents fear that children will have to spend a longer time en route to and from school;

3. Concern may develop in some of the districts about what will happen to bonded indebtedness already incurred.

H. D. Maxwell, Milam County Superintendent of Schools for the past 12 years, at the request of the County School Board outlined the present duties and functions of his office.

Maxwell said schools currently under the county school office are the Gause Independent School District, a six grade elementary school; the Maysfield School, an eight grade school system; and the Buckholts Rural High School, a 12 grade system. Other schools in the county, except Cameron and Rockdale, are "cooperative" schools, receiving some teacher aid from the county office.

The county office also administers Adult Basic Education in Milam County and at Hearne with five part-time employees, mostly teachers.

The county school office has six full-time employees: superintendent, bookkeeper, secretary, counselor-supervisor, health nurse, and itinerant teacher.

FUNCTIONS DETAILED

Maxwell said functions of the county school office include:

Supervision of common schools, including visits to schools to assist Boards and administrators.

Calculate teachers salaries, prepare and approve payroll checks, local expenses, transportation expenses for common school districts.

Approve and file teachers' contracts of common schools, record teacher certificates for all schools in County; file teachers' transcripts and W-4 and W-2 forms; prepare teacher retirement, withholding tax, social security, insurance, lunchroom and transportation monthly reports.

Approve bus drivers contracts in common schools, and bus routes for all schools in County; keep record of pupils transported; plan bus driver workshops; approve purchase of busses and tires.

Prepare budgets for each common school district and rural high school district, apportion all funds ($300,000 annually).

Maintain double-entry system of books for each separate district.

Prepare cooperative agreement reports for all schools in the county; supervise programs including employment of supervisor, librarian and school nurse with schedules of work outlined for each of the cooperative personnel.

Prepare county administration budget annually; record and file all school insurance policies and maintain permanent school records for all children of the common school districts.

Serve as textbook custodian and issue textbooks to schools; appoint and approve textbook selection committee; plan and supervise county text book hearing.

Distribute lunchroom USDA commodities and plan lunchroom workshops in county; keep monthly records on lunchroom participation (filed with state agency); distribute monthly lunch payments received from state.

Serve as secretary of county school board; record minutes, hear all appeals from common schools; approve consolidations and annexations to districts under school board's directions; approve and record school district boundary changes as directed by board.

Maintain audio-visual services; operate library service for adults and teachers; supervise counseling, testing, guidance and health programs; plan workshops and extension courses for teachers.

Approve time warrants for common school districts; keep on file annual reports from common and cooperating schools and teacher daily registers.

Administer to handicapped children through school nurse. Represent county for Region VI Education Service Center and cooperate with other schools in this program in Region VI which serves 14 counties.

Serve as representative for Science improvement and American Heritage programs in county schools; serve as fiscal agent for Federal cooperative programs in Gause, Buckholts, Maysfield schools and Adult Basic Education programs at Cameron and Hearne; plan and supervise all ABE classes.

Supervise filing, posting notices, distributing supplies and receiving returns of school trustee elections in common and Rural High School Districts.

Keep bookkeeping records, including Federal programs for Gause Independent School District.

Verify ages based on school census records to establish facts for Social Security, Medicare, Welfare and drivers licenses.

Assist with duplication work for various county offices; welfare, County Attorney, tax collector, County Health Unit.

Thomas To Head '70 School Board

Hilliard Thomas was elected new president of the Cameron School Board at a regular meeting Thursday night.

Trustees elected Calvin Cobb vice president and Fredwill Hornung secretary after canvassing votes cast in the Saturday school trustee election.

New board member Bentley Hause, and re-elected members Forrest Sapp and Charles McDermott were sworn in. Official vote totals were: Mrs. Reeves Brown, 201; Sapp, 279; Dr. John Martin, 190; McDermott, 202; and Hause, 206.

In other business, trustees heard a proposal from the Yoe High Student Council concerning the board's dress and hair policy; discussed building of a new homemaker cottage; and accepted resignations from two teachers.

After he was elected president of the board, Thomas praised the work of former president Coleman Duncum, saying, "He has done an excellent job, providing a guidance and a stability to the board that was sorely needed."

The proposal offered by the student council included increasing the allowable dress length by one inch, limiting length to seven inches from the floor when measured in a kneeling position.

Suggested length for boys sideburns was to the jawline, width limited to a line drawn from the outside eye corner. Hair length would stop at "flipping over the collar."

Sapp, Cobb, and Hornung were appointed to check dress rules in other areas and report back at the May meeting.

Supt. D. R. Dodson said specifications for the new homemaker cottage had not been received. He reported that plans for the building were complete and construction should be ready for bids by the next meeting.

The new building will be of steel construction similar to the band hall.

Resignations were accepted from Bob Carney, band director, and Mrs. Kathryn Newhouse. Trustees also voted to renew one-year contracts for C. Titsworth and Miss Susan Rosson.

The school will furnish bus transportation for the Senior Class trip. In voting to furnish the buses, board members noted that seniors experienced difficulty in raising enough money to finance class activities. In previous years, the class has transportation expenses of senior trips.

Thomas asked Supt. Dodson if Cameron schools have had any problems with drugs. Dodson told of one incident involving a high school student in which circumstances pointed to the possibility of marijuana use.

The incident involved students from Cameron taking part in illegal activities at Temple. The information was turned over to County authorities, Dodson said, but apparently no action was taken, so far as he knew.

Board members advised working with City police in cooperation with Temple City Police and the Army Provost Marshal, since other incidents involving students and soldiers have been reported.

Dodson said the high school student, a girl, had been arrested in Temple in connection with immoral activities which included "recruiting" girls, some as young as seventh graders.

Trustees discussed reports of school girls being picked up by Ft. Hood soldiers at a local drive-in and the possibility that the soldiers may be distributing marijuana.

Ben Arnold Reports Two Inches

Thursday's rain was hailed by most area farmers as coming "just at the right time" to benefit recently planted crops.

Feed grain crops are nearly all sown, according to Milam County Agent J. D. Moore. He said farmers were anxious to get rain to settle the ground, especially in spots that were "cloddy."

The moisture fell at a good time for cotton, he added, coming just ahead of planting time.

The rain gauge measured 1.82 inches of rain Thursday and Thursday night. Unofficial total reported for the Ben Arnold area was 2.10 inches during the same period of time.

Total rainfall in Cameron for the year was 13.34 inches as of April 10.

REBEKAH IVEY IS FAIR FINALIST

Rebekah Ivey of Cameron took top honors in the Junior High Division of the Central Texas Regional Science Fair in Waco Friday, winning over a field of 300 contestants.

Miss Ivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ivey of Cameron, charted the soil acidity in several areas of Milam County. She won a set of encyclopedias.

Gary Meyer of Cameron received the U.S. Air Force award for his entry and a first place in the junior math division. Charles Riola received an honorable mention in the senior math division.

Absentee Voting Starts Monday

Absentee voting in the May 2 primary elections opens today (Monday) in the office of County Clerk Wayne Weiser.

Weiser said absentee votes could be cast through April 28. He said absentee ballots from county residents must be cast in his office unless the voter is physically unable to come to the courthouse. "If a voter is unable to come here to vote he must include an affidavit from his doctor with his request for a mailed ballot," Weiser said.

Weiser said anyone casting a ballot must be registered in the county, with the exception of military personnel serving overseas. "A special provision in the new election code allows military personnel to vote absentee without previously registering, if he is on overseas assignment,"

He said they expected a light vote in the non-presidential primary elections although several state and local offices are contested.

County races are for: County School Superintendent - Max McClaren and Ruby Arledge;

Precinct 4 Commissioner - Dora McCasland (incumbent), Charles F. Becker and Dalton Caffey;

Democratic County Committee Chairman - Bassel Wilson and C. R. (Roy) Law;

Precinct 16 chairman (Rockdale) - John M. Wied, Jr. and Harold Love.

No local candidates filed for the Republican ballot.

Weiser said his office would have ballots for both the Democratic and Republican primaries.

Library Week April 12-18

Library Week is being observed across the country April 12-18 with special emphasis on "reading is for everybody" and "read, look, listen in your library."

Catholic Women's Convention Set At Austin April 27-28

"Women in Human Relations" will be the theme of this year's Austin Diocesan Council of Catholic Women's Convention. The Rockne District will host the convention in Austin on April 27 and 28 at the Terrace Motor Hotel.

Guest speakers for the event will be Attorney Robert T. Davis and J. C. Ledbetter, a former Seventh Day Adventist missionary in Brazil.

Davis now practices law in Austin and was a former Assistant Attorney General in Texas. He is active in many community affairs. Davis is also president of the National Leadership Institute, a non-profit organization offering advanced leadership training to high school and college students.

Ledbetter will be the speaker for the International Affairs workshop, showing slides taken during his missionary work. He and his family recently returned from a three year stay in Belém, Brazil, and now live in San Marcos.

WORSHIP IN CHURCH

let this cup pass from me" (St. Matthew 26:39).
Even the Son of God could not always have His way. The bitter cup did not pass. Even though Jesus prayed three times for the cup to go away. He always concluded with, "not as I will, but as thou wilt".
He drank it deliberately in a calm majestic mood, while God stood by in loving sympathy.
By drinking that most bitter cup, Jesus became the Saviour of the world. God gave Him strength for the suffering and through this heroic deed, Jesus became perfect.
People, all about us, every day, cry the same prayer, "let this cup pass from me". We tremble at the ordeal ahead. Our faith shrinks to know we must suffer such fate as St. Matthew spoke of. But suffering seasons us. It links us to God, for high adventure and noble service through His church.

how to live - and die - with Texas Probate

This is a condensed version of one of 10 chapters of a 21-chapter book, "How To Live—and Die—With Texas Probate," copyrighted by the Gulf Publishing Company. These condensations in no way cover the whole volume, which can be purchased from your local bookstore or from Gulf Publishing Co., P. O. Box 2708, Houston 77001.

WHAT SHOULD MY WILL CONTAIN?

An "executor" is the one who, after the death of the will maker, carries out the instructions in a will, pays the debts and protects and manages the property until it can be delivered to those who get it. If a will does not appoint an executor, the probate court will appoint one.

It is also desirable that the will name another executor to serve in case the person first named can't serve.

The will should state that the executor need not post a surety bond. Otherwise, the probate court will require the person named as executor to furnish a bond to the court. The cost of the bond is paid out of the estate.

PROVISION FOR INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATION

Texans enjoy the advantages of a probate procedure known as "independent administration," which greatly reduces the costs and delays in handling an estate. These advantages are available only if the will states that the executor is to act independent of court control.

PROVISION FOR PAYMENT

OF DEBTS AND TAXES

The law requires the executor to pay debts and taxes. It usually is better for the will not to say "pay my debts" because this might require payment in full of a mortgage which otherwise could be paid in monthly installments over a period of years. If property is to be inherited tax free with the death taxes being paid out of other property in the estate, this must be stated in the will.

PROVISIONS DISPOSING OF THE PROPERTY

In Texas a person may leave his property to anyone he chooses — relative or not — for a good reason, a bad reason or no reason. He can give the property outright or provide that the person receiving the property is to enjoy it only during his lifetime (or for a certain period of time), and thereafter the property will go to another.

The will should be written so that it covers all of the property. If this is not done, costly court proceedings may be necessary regarding omitted property.

A common mistake is giving away too much in the will. Circumstances may change between the time the will is signed and the time the maker dies.

For example, say a person had property worth $75,000 in 1966 when he made his will. He wanted his children to receive the biggest part of his estate, so he willed his will to give five relatives $5,000 each with the rest of the estate going to the children.

However, if his estate has shrunk to $25,000 by the time he dies, the $5,000 gifts will use up the entire estate and the children will get nothing.

PROVISION FOR ALTERNATE DISPOSITION OF THE PROPERTY

When a person provides in his will that most of his property is to go to a certain person, it is wise to name a secondary person in the event the first one dies before the will takes effect.

PROVISION FOR DEATH FROM A COMMON ACCIDENT

Suppose a husband's will leaves all his property to his wife, or to his parents if she dies before he does, and the wife's will leaves all of her property to the husband, or to her parents if he dies first.

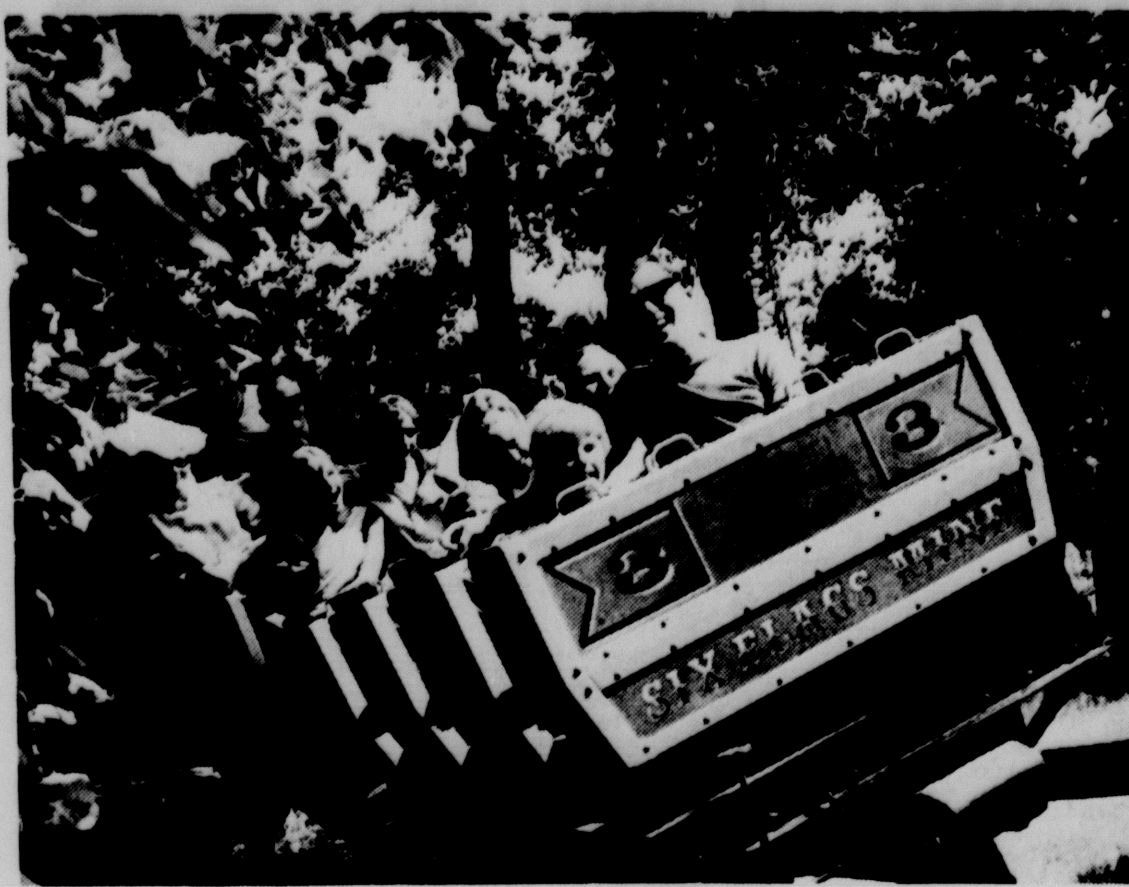

Then, in a common accident the husband dies first and the wife dies 10 minutes later. Immediately upon the husband's death, his property goes to his wife and 10 minutes later, when the wife dies, the property goes to her parents, eliminating the husband's family entirely.

This is not what the parties really wanted and two estates within 10 minutes could result in two federal estate taxes and two Texas inheritance taxes.

It happens often. To avoid these problems, every will should contain a "common accident clause." It provides that if one spouse dies within 60 days of the other, the estate would go to someone else.

POWERS FOR THE EXECUTOR

So that the executor can administer the estate with the least amount of time, trouble and expense, he should be given broad powers. Special wording should be used in the will to provide those powers. Without it, his job is made more difficult.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

BY VERN SANFORD

Most Texas anglers are aware of the fact that cool rains and cold winds, which drop temperatures of lakes and streams, have an effect on fish.

Every angler should recognize that as temperatures decline, so does the metabolism of most game fish. Result is a slowing of the reflexes and a diminishing of the appetite.

This doesn't mean that the fish stop feeding. No siree! It's just that they won't react to a lure that's moving too fast. So, slow it down so the fish can catch it easily.

Proper lures for you to use under such circumstances are baits that can be retrieved slowly. These include plastic worms, weighted spinners with a #5 blade, surface lures that make a commotion via a hollow head or spinners, and floating-diving lures.

DRUGS IN 2000 A.D.

We hear so much that is bad about drugs these days that we may sometimes forget that drugs, properly used, are essential and necessary. But that there is a normal side of drug use was pointed up at sessions held by experts of the American College of Neuropsychopharmacology.

These are scientists who work year in and year out with all kinds of drugs that affect the mind. A recent issue of the National Institute of Mental Health's Psychopharmacology Bulletin reported on the experts' session of scientific speculation as to what might be expected for drug use in the year 2000 by normal human beings.

Among the highlights of their fascinating explorations of future drug use is consideration of drugs for problems of aging.

It is estimated that in 2000 A.D. the U.S. population will be 310 million. Of these, 30 million will be over 65 and 20 million over 75. Drugs may be found and employed to counteract such disabilities of the aging person as slowness, mental rigidity, dull senses, impaired memory, impaired learning, emotional instability, depression, anxiety, early waking, unpleasant dreams, and various "aches and pains."

At the turn of the century then, which is only 30 years from now, a nurse visiting a 75-year-old person may be engaged as part of her job in making sure that he is taking regularly several kinds of vitamin doses, a painkiller, a hypnotic and dream regulator, an anti-depressant, a sedative or psychostimulant, and so on.

But neither the drug experts, nor anyone else concerned with human health programs, expects that drugs can or will do the whole job then or ever.

"The real needs of the old person are for love, not respect," the conference findings say.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Business In Your Home?

One way to fatten the family budget is to set up a business in your own home. However, the neighbors might not look kindly upon such an enterprise. Assuming that your property has a deed restriction, limiting it to residential use, would you be able to go ahead anyhow?

If the business is on a substantial scale, you ordinarily could not get away with it. For example:

"We are still using the place as our residence. That continues to be its primary function." Nevertheless, the court ordered them to discontinue the restaurant. The judge said a venture of such magnitude could not fairly be reconciled with the basic purpose of keeping the neighborhood residential in character. But if the commercial intrusion is only minor, it may well be tolerated. Thus, another court held it was all right for a woman to give occasional singing lessons during daylight hours, even though her home was supposed to be used for residential purposes only.

Of course, the particular wording of the deed restriction may make all the difference. For instance, the restriction might simply say that "no trade or business" shall be allowed on the premises.

This phrase was held to prohibit a home-based beauty shop, even though of modest size. But it was held not to prohibit a doctor from seeing patients in the back room of his house. The court said the doctor's activity was neither a "trade" nor a "business" but rather a profession.

In still another case, the deed restriction did have a specific clause allowing use of the property for a "medical office." Under this wording, could a veterinarian use his home for a cat hospital? A court ruled that he could not. The judge said the difference between a medical office and a cat hospital was just too plain to be ignored.

Letters to the Editor

April 8, 1970

Dear Mr. Luecke: Your endorsement - or more precisely, endorsements - of my candidacy provided a real boost in the campaign. I am deeply appreciative of your consideration and the trust you have placed in me. It is my pledge to you personally that this trust and confidence have not been misplaced.

Traditionally, Milam County has been one of the bellwethers of state politics. I hope - judging from the support I have seen in Cameron - that this holds true on election day.

Again, my most heartfelt thanks for your help.

Sincerely,
Bob Armstrong

Dear Mr. Luecke: I am enclosing for your information a brochure descriptive of Judge Truman E. Roberts, District Judge in my home County, who is a candidate for the Court of Criminal Appeals. In this election year, this is one of the most important contested races that will appear on the ballot in the Democratic Primary.

I recently served on the Constitutional Revision Commission and there was much discussion as to whether or not our State Judges should be appointed by the Governor or elected by the people of Texas. I personally believe that these judges should be elected. This belief carries with it the responsibility to investigate to the best of my ability the qualifications of the candidates in a given judicial race. I have known Judge Roberts for many years, and know him to be exceptionally well qualified for the office he seeks. It is particularly important to have a Court of Criminal Appeals willing to respect the rights of society as well as the rights of the individual.

A race for judicial office historically is a "pore boy" race and this one is no exception. For this reason, I hope that after conducting your own investigation as to the qualifications of Judge Roberts, you will give him whatever editorial support you can.

Incidentally, in a judicial poll conducted by the Texas Bar Association, Judge Roberts was endorsed by the lawyers of Texas in this race by an almost two to one margin.

Very truly yours,
J. P. Word

if you are referring to one who leads a very austere and self-denying life; usually for religious reasons.

ASCETIC (uh SET ik) is correct for the above.

ESTHETIC (es THET ik) means of or relating to the beauty in art, nature, etc. Keenly responsive to and appreciative of beauty in art, nature.

ESTHETE (ES theet) is one who is very responsive to and deeply appreciative of beauty in art and nature. But be careful -- it can also refer to one who is habitually, although ARTIFICIALLY extravagant in his admiration for art and beauty.

'Yes' To Security Act

Cong. Richard H. Ichord (D-Mo.), chairman of the U. S. House Committee on Internal Security, recently asked this newspaper's view of passage of a Defense Facilities Industrial Security Act of 1970.

His letter of March 20 and information backgrounding the Act, passed in January by a House vote of 274-65, appeared on these pages April 2.

This Act relates to screening individuals who work in defense-related industry.

Cong. Ichord cited a mutiny on the merchant ship "Columbia Eagle" which he termed punishable if the Coast Guard's screening program under the earlier Magnuson Act had not been countermanded by a U. S. Supreme Court decision, the 1968 case of Schneider v. Commandant.

Court held the Presidential executive order under which civilian personnel are screened was invalid.

The question is whether a defense-related facility, either a plant on land or a ship like the "Columbia Eagle" at sea, manned by merchant seamen carrying Vietnam-bound cargo, may be under strict federal screening procedure.

Because civilians were involved, apparently the Supreme Court said "no" to the executive order though a military involvement was clear.

A question of loyalty attaches to any sensitive job in defense-related functions, even when the Vietnam War has opened facets of protest and genuine questions of value judgment beyond any previous American military involvement.

Cong. Ichord assures, and substantial comment from proponents either side of the aisle documents, that safeguards for individual rights are built into this Act. This would explain its resounding approval by more than four to one in the House vote.

It seems shipboard or State-side security precautions are vital, whether a civilian mutineer alters the course of a ship bound for Vietnam for some "individual protest" or an identifiable subversive, incorrigible or unbalanced individual penetrates defense-related industry.

This country is being wrought insensible by indiscriminate questioning--of "conscience", of group suggestion, of itinerant rebellion, of rampant instability.

The Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Senator James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) can bring one element of such protest under the law.

We vote "yes" for the Senate Judiciary Committee's moving this bill out of committee and to the Senate floor for debate and subsequent approval.

A Cleaner Town, Start Here

The Board of Aldermen has shelved the idea to require litter bags in local automobiles, mainly, we gather, because it would be a hard law to enforce. No doubt it would be. A television commercial compares littering man with pigs, but this is actually unfair to the pig. Given a chance, the pig would rather be clean; man seems to delight in fouling his environment, and it is unlikely that a simple city ordinance, no matter how strictly enforced, is going to reform him.

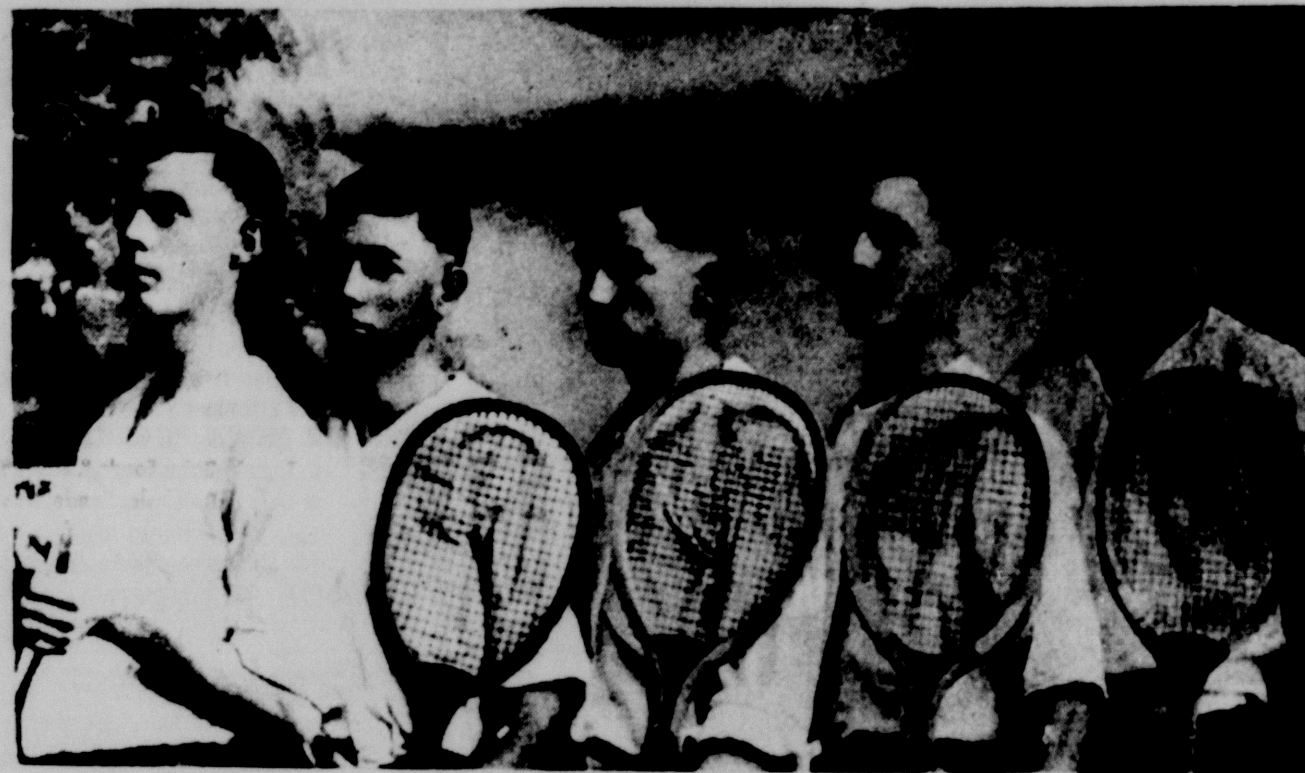

Sic transit another good idea. But if the aldermen can't figure a way to block the litterbug, there is one nuisance whose assault on the environment can be stopped by the police with nothing more than a little effort. We refer to the driver of the car with the smoking exhaust. Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said vile and unprintable things after following one of these smoking, smelling clunkers for a few blocks? And lives there one who has not become rightfully indignant at seeing a police car wallowing along through the same smoke and doing nothing to stop the smoker?

Car exhausts are one of the major sources of air pollution in the nation. It will apparently take fairly extensive --and expensive--installation of equipment to stop this pollution completely. But a tightened ordinance, a systematic campaign of enforcement and a few fines for the more persistent offenders could go a long way toward making life easier for everyone who uses the streets. It is hard to see why the aldermen aren't more interested.

TRIGGS (Captain), ROGERS, SHAW, CHILDRESS, THOMAS.

To show the wide range of interest in sports in Cameron over the years, let's take a look at the 1916 CHS Tennis Team. The members of this particular team are justly proud of their record. In 1915 the team composed of Deb Childress and Claude Triggs won the Championship. George Childress and Clifton Rogers represented Cameron High School in the County Meet and lost only two games in the 38 played. Claude Triggs easily won the singles and Leland Denson and Jack Vest captured the Jr. Title. The men represented Cameron High School in the district meet.

ROGERS TRUSTEES MEET; SWEAR IN NEW MEMBERS

In a regular monthly meeting Tuesday night the Board of Trustees of Rogers Ind. School District canvassed the returns of the trustee election, and found Sherman Mayfield and Darrell Henson duly elected.

They were immediately sworn into office for a three-year term. The Board then elected officers for 1970-71, as follows: C. O. Gunter, president; D. D. Ward, vice president; Clayton Clowers, secretary.

The Board unanimously passed a resolution of praise and appreciation to Woodson Waits and H. H. Wright for their long and faithful service on the Board.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q Is there a Form 1040-1 and if so, where can I get a copy?

A The designation 1040-1 refers to the page number of the back of the first copy of the Form 1040 in the tax packages sent to all taxpayers this year. On it will be found general information on the new Form 1040. Other general instructions for Form 1040 continue on the back of the taxpayer's copy of the 1040 and on pages B-2, E-2, and R-2, all of which are found in the package. The designations 1040-1 and 1040-2 were used simply for numbering and indexing purposes and do not refer to any form separate and apart from the 1040 itself. This same approach applies to other instructions in the package, which, again for indexing purposes, also have been given alphabetical and numerical designations.

Q The estimated tax forms you sent me said to watch for changes in the law. Have there been any that would affect my 1970 declaration?

A One change that affects all taxpayers is the increase in the amount allowed for personal exemptions. For the 1970 tax year, $625 should be taken for each exemption.

The Tax Reform Act of 1969 increased the amount for personal exemptions from $600 to $650 effective next July 1 when the necessary adjustments will be made in withholding rates. Since the change takes place at mid-year, the net effect will be to increase the exemption amount to $625.

Also, the tax surcharge has been continued at a 5 percent annual rate for the period January 1, 1970, through June 30, 1970, or 2.5 percent for the tax year 1970.

Some taxpayers may also find the new provisions on income averaging and capital gains will affect their declarations. Details on these provisions and the tax surcharge may be obtained by writing your IRS district director for Publication 553 or by contacting your local IRS office.

Q Do I handle dividends from a savings and loan account the same way as other dividends?

A No, this income should be reported as interest on line 13 of Form 1040. If your total interest income is over $100, list the amounts you receive on Schedule B, Part II, and attach it to your return when you file.

Q I just sent in my return. How long will I have to wait for my refund?

A If your return is accurate and complete, you should have your refund within 5-6 weeks of the date you filed.

However, should your refund be delayed beyond this period, wait 10 weeks before contacting IRS about it. This will allow time for any notice or omission such as a missing Social Security number, W-2 or one of the schedules.

Q Who can use the tax surcharge tables in the 1040 package?

A The tables should be used for determining the surcharge if your income tax is under $755. For $755 and over, multiply your tax by 10 percent to determine the surcharge you owe for 1969.

Q Will IRS figure the tax for you even if you end up owing tax?

A Yes. If there is tax due, you will be billed and have 30 days to make full payment.

IRS can only compute the tax where the taxpayer's gross income is under $5,000 which consists of wages subject to withholding and not more than $200 of dividends, interest and wages not subject to withholding, and the standard deduction is claimed. But the taxpayer computes his tax when he is claiming sick pay, moving expenses, or employee business expenses.

Q Do you have to itemize deductions to get any credit for hospital insurance premiums paid?

A Yes, you must itemize to claim this deduction. However, you may deduct half of your medical insurance premiums up to a maximum of $150 even though your other medical expenses do not exceed 3 percent of your adjusted gross income.

Q I pay someone to take care of my two girls while I work. Is there any deduction for this?

A You may deduct all or part of this expense when certain conditions are met. These conditions are explained on page A-2 of the 1040 tax package you received in the mail.

Dase Joins Alcoa Staff

William G. (Bill) Dase, Jr., a native of Mobile, Ala., and resident of Cameron, has joined the mechanical engineering staff at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works.

The New Mexico State University graduate (summer of 1964) holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mechanical Engineering from that school and expects to receive the M. S. Degree from the University of Texas at Austin in May of this year.

After four years with the U. S. Air Force, Dase was discharged in 1968 with the rank of Captain. He received the Commendation Medal while on active duty.

Dase and his wife, the former Jean Ray Lester of Cameron, are members of the Cameron Country Club and Mrs. Dase is a member of the Three Arts Club, also of Cameron. They

Food Items Doubled

Today's new supermarket covers a total area of 21,000 square feet and handles about 7,500 customer transactions per week. It stocks between 8,000 and 10,000 items, more than twice as many as 20 years ago.

Production Price Picture

The last time cattle were bringing prices equivalent to the $34.00 per hundred weight that's being paid today was in 1951-52. In other words, cattle producers are getting no more now than they did then. What has happened with the rest of the economy since 1951? There has been an increase in housing costs of 35%; clothing, 22.3%; transportation, 59.9%; medical care, 88.6%; reading and recreation, 36.6%; food (all categories) 25.1%.

Farmstead Geography

Where do the nation's farm families live? The southern states lead with 44.5%, followed by the north central area with 38.8%. Of the remaining families, 9.5% live in the west and 7.2% in the northeast.

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health

Accent on Health

J.E. PEAVY, M.D., Commissioner of Health

Two things are said to be certain in this world: death and taxes.

To this add a third certainty: If you live in Texas—or the United States for that matter—chances are about one in two that you will die of a circulatory disease—a disease of the heart or blood vessels, reports the Texas State Department of Health.

Despite the prevalence of newspaper stories and reports you see and hear on radio and television about accidents and other violence, heart disease continues to be the number one killer of Texans. Among the top ten are apoplexy — commonly called "stroke" — and generalized arteriosclerosis, known as hardening of the arteries.

There is virtually no change in these top ten killers compiled in the Annual Texas Mortality Report and published by the Texas State Department of Health.

Final reports for 1969 are still being tabulated, but the top spot once again is expected to be heart disease. In 1968 almost 93,000 deaths were reported from all causes in Texas. Heart disease, claiming 31,620 lives, more than doubled the second most common form of death—cancer—which recorded 15,073 victims.

SENIOR SCOUTS TO ATTEND SWTS ARTS MEETING

Cameron's Senior Girl Scouts will attend the "Arts in Action" Scout Conference at San Marcos April 17 through 19.

Seniors Connie Ellis, Pat Hollas, Carolyn Matula, Beth Brock and Kathryn Kahler will participate in workshops in music, drama, dance and hand arts in the Southwest Texas State University Fine Arts facilities.

Activities centered at Holiday Inn, San Marcos, and SWTS will include a play, parties, meetings, and a banquet on Saturday.

The Seniors will pay their conference expenses with money earned in several projects this year.

BIRTHS

To Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Horelica, 601 Walnut St., a boy, Garland Wayne, 6 pounds 8 ounces, born 3:30 p.m., March 30 at St. Edward Hospital.

To Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Shedenhelm, Rt. 2 Rockdale, a girl, Tammy Sue, 8 pounds 10 ounces born 12:10 p.m., April 6 at St. Edward Hospital.

'Flower Power' Theme For Garden Club Show

Methodist Fellowship Hall will be a "Mod World" of good food and beautiful flowers Wednesday, April 15, with the staging of the Fleur de Lis Garden Club spring show "Flower Power". The show, with a special bake sale booth, will be open to the public from 3 to 6 p.m. Tickets are on sale from club members or may be purchased at the door.

Flower arrangements will follow a modern theme this year with three "creativity" classes: "The Mod Mod World", "Soc It To Em", and "The Generation Gap". Standard arrangement classes will be "Ring My Chimes", "It's A Real Thing", and "Flower Child".

Flower arrangements will be judged Wednesday morning by nationally accredited flower show judges. They will be judged on design, interpretation, color, distinction and originality.

Other features of the annual flower show will be a class for pot plants grown by non-members, a children's section and horticulture division.

Entries of pot plants grown by non-members has been included for the first time this year. Mrs. Derwood Cobb, flower show chairman, said "There are so many outstanding growers in the community, that we feel this division will be one of the most interesting."

Mrs. Cobb said the non-member division would not be judged with the regular show, however special awards will be made.

Anyone interested in entering the non-member division can contact Mrs. Cobb for further information. Entries will be received at Methodist Fellowship Hall between 7:30 and 10 a.m.

Flower Show committee chairman is Mrs. Derwood Cobb. Show committee members are Mrs. Bernay Dusek, Mrs. Monroe Fuchs, Mrs. Dana Kestenbaum, Mrs. Wirt Skinner and Mrs. Frank Luecke.

Special committees are: Mrs. Forrest Sapp and Mrs. T.G. Raymond Jr., schedules; Mrs. George Hollas, Mrs. Wm. Kelm, Mrs. Roy Boutwell and Mrs. Karen Pullen, staging; Mrs. Monroe Fuchs, judges; Mrs. Dana Kestenbaum and Mrs. James Camp, hospitality; Mrs. Dan McDaniels, Mrs. D. R. Dodson and Mrs. Bernay Dusek, entries; Mrs. Ed Magre, awards;

Also: Mrs. Don Humble, Mrs. Alvis Coleman and Mrs. Ron Derry, invitations; Mrs. E. D. Chandler, registration; Mrs. Don Marquart and Mrs. Delbert Bur-lison, litterbug display; Mmes. Kestenbaum, Dusek, Luecke and Camp, clerks.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Wilkerson of Cleveland, Tex., spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Lula Wilkerson in the nursing home.

HOBBS MOVE

The Skip Hobbs family has moved from 1600 N. Jackson to their new residence at Hoyte, formerly the W. T. Whatley home.

IN VIRGINIA

Rev. and Mrs. Wirt Skinner are in Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, where Rev. Skinner is attending a conference on "Using Electronic and Printed Media". They will return April 16.

Toys From Scraps

A sackful of mill ends from the local lumber yard will prove more fun for youngsters than many an expensive toy. Make super-sized building blocks for outdoor play by gluing and nailing them together.

Fixers Feminine

"Handywomen" will be doing from 25 to 50 percent of the home repair jobs during the 1970's. That's the opinion of two-thirds of a recently polled sampling of male housing specialists. Many a housewife will add, "So what's new?"

FLOWER POWER poster, a creation of Mrs. Wirt Skinner for the Fleur de Lis Garden Flower Show, is admired by show committee members Mrs. Derwood Cobb, Mrs. Dana Kestenbaum, Mrs. George Hollas and (seated) Mrs. Bernay Dusek. The show will be open to the public from 3 to 6 p.m. Wednesday, April 15, at the Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Economical Meaty Casseroles Fill Need For Nutritious At-Home or Carry-Along Dinners

Casseroles are the answer for the main dish you're asked to bring along to a club, church or school pot-luck dinner. They also fill the need for easy and economical family meals. Quick to prepare, easy to carry, convenient to serve from baking dish and nutritious—small wonder casserole recipes are in demand.

A combination of many ingredients, most casseroles are dependent upon the meat they contain for primary appeal. Any number of cuts are suitable. Ground or boneless beef, pork sausage, diced ham and processed meats such as dried beef or frank-furters are popular sources of flavor and protein.

Meat expert Reba Staggs of the National Live Stock and Meat Board recommends these tasty casseroles for bring-a-dish socializing or at-home dining. Their appeal is varied since included are a ground beef-noodle casserole with a topping of crunchy peanuts and a pork sausage and corn combo. Why not try both!

Nutty Noodle Casserole

1½ pounds ground beef
½ cup chopped onion
1 tablespoon lard or drippings
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 cup milk
2 cups narrow egg noodles
2 ounces Cheddar cheese, shredded
16 stuffed green olives,

halved, if desired
1 teaspoon salt

¾ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup (1 ounce) chopped salted peanuts

Brown ground beef and onions in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Stir milk into soup to blend. Cook noodles according to package directions. Combine beef, noodles, soup mixture, olives, cheese, salt and pepper. Pour into 1½-quart rectangular casserole. Sprinkle with peanuts. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for about 30 minutes. 6 servings.

Pork Sausage and Corn Casserole

1 pound pork sausage
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt

¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 cup cracker crumbs
1 can (17 ounces) whole kernel corn, drained
1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted

Divide sausage in 6 equal portions and shape into patties. Lightly brown in frying-pan.

Remove sausage. Pour off drippings and return 2 tablespoonfuls to frying-pan.

Stir flour into drippings. Add milk and salt and cook, stirring constantly, until the mixture is thickened. Add green pepper. Arrange ½ cup cracker crumbs in a greased casserole. Add corn. Place sausage patties on corn and pour white sauce over all.

Mix remaining cracker crumbs and melted butter or margarine and sprinkle on top of mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 40 minutes. 4 servings.

First alternate named by the Scholarship Selection Board is Mary Jane Roschetzky of Milano High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Roschetzky of Route 3, Cameron.

Second alternate is Beverly Lynn Yoakum of Rockdale High School. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Yoakum, Jr. of Rockdale.

The students were selected from a field of 56 applicants — the largest number to apply in Rockdale Works history. Final winners were determined by a board comprised of area school superintendents, H. D. Maxwell, superintendent of Milan County Schools, is chairman of the board.

In addition to the $3,000 to each winner, the Alcoa Foundation awards unrestricted grants-in-aid of $1,000 to colleges attended by the recipients. Winners were selected on the basis of the applicants' scholastic achievement and promise, as well as such personal qualities as character and leadership ability. In order to be eligible for consideration by the Selection Board, a candidate must be the son or daughter of an Alcoa employee and in the upper one-half of his or her graduating class.

Miss Thurman plans to attend Texas A&M University as a psychology major.

President of her Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes at Milano High School and president of her local chapter of the National Honor Society, Miss Thurman served as yearbook editor and business manager during her senior year. She received the American Legion and Citizenship Awards, was co-captain and All-District Guard of the Milano girls basketball team, a member of Future Homemakers of America, and was active in the First Baptist Church activities.

Miss Curtis, in the scholastic top ten of her graduating class, is also a member of the National Honor Society and has been named to the high school Who's Who. She received the Betty Crocker Award, is a member of the Future Teachers of America, Spanish Club, and 1st Division Solo of the Band. Miss Curtis is a member of her church choir, Community Youth Choir, co-president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and participates in other church activities.

The Rockdale High Senior hopes to attend the University of Texas at Austin to major in history.

JOE M. BRADY

USS MIDWAY

Navy Fireman Joe M. Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Brady of Buckholts, was advanced to his present rate while serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Midway in San Francisco.

His advancement was based on time in service and rate, military appearance, performance of duties and his score on the Navy-wide test for promotion.

Drive With Traffic

Drive with traffic, not against the clock, reminds the Texas Safety Association.

A driver at 70 miles per hour gains only seven minutes in 50 miles over the driver traveling at 60 miles per hour.

PROMOTED - James L. Throckmorton, Giddings native and Rockdale resident, has been promoted to mechanical shops foreman at Aluminum Company of America's Rockdale Works. Throckmorton's promotion comes after 18 years at the aluminum plant and after assignments in the electrical maintenance and mechanical maintenance departments.

SAFETY CHECK

The National Highway Safety Bureau has begun a nationwide spotcheck of automobile dealers to see if they are complying with a new federal motor vehicle safety regulation. Dealers must supply prospective buyers with safety information on stopping distance, acceleration and passing ability and tire reserve loads for new automobiles.
